

Adventure: Music and lyrics by Brittany Jean

They say there are wild horses on this island
So let's go find them
There's a glittering lighthouse up the way
We'll see better from there

Bare feet in the sand
Shoes dangling from my hands
Without a word I up and ran
'Cause it's there--don't you see it
Adventure

We're spending a week here in this house
In Carolina
Up a spiral staircase to a secret room
Full of books and old frames

For one hour I disappear
Curled up in a rocking chair
Turning pages in musty air
Cause it's there--don't you feel it
Adventure

Under the stars at midnight
It's New Year's Eve
And we're all here
Floating lanterns over the ocean
Singing songs by the fire

Keep watching
Keep on watching
Don't you see it
Adventure

Bare feet in the sand
Shoes dangling from my hands
Without a word
Hey!

Without a word I up and ran
'Cause it's there--don't you feel it
