

Really Truly Only: Music and lyrics by Brittany Jean

This party is all-around style
Silver and lace for miles
Oh, I know there are places you would rather be Downtown and dressed to the nines
And all these crazy friends are mine
Oh, I know you're only here because you love me

You catch my eye at 6:08
You pull me to the side and say,
"I'm gonna be honest right now
And yes, I know how this might sound..."

But I really, truly, only like us
Just the two of us
We're good enough
We're good enough for me
And I don't wanna talk to him and her
Or him and her talkin' back to me
If I must, I must--but honey, I
Really, truly, only like us..."

You smile and tell a cheesy joke
And it goes up in smoke
But I know you know I know it's funny
Small talk that's going nowhere
And I can see you trying over there
Oh, I know you're only here because you love me

"Oh, I really, truly, only like us
Just the two of us--we're good enough
We're good enough for me
And I don't wanna talk to him and her
Or him and her talkin' back to me
If I must, I must--but honey, I
Really, truly, only like us

Is it wrong I love you best
If it is, well, I couldn't care less
I could do without anyone but you so happily
'Cause truthfully and honestly, I really, truly, only like us..."
And I don't wanna talk to him and her
Or him and her talkin' back to me
If I must, I must--but honey, I
Really, truly, only... I like us too
