

Something to Miss: Music and lyrics by Brittany Jean

A memory takes my mind from time to time
A friendly face or a favorite place--I'd forgotten that was mine
And suddenly I've gotta smile
A reverie of harmony for just awhile

Like a three week trip to the east coast
Niagara Falls and ferry boats
All I know is this
There's always something to miss

I heard the news through the grapevine yesterday
The brightest smile that I've ever seen was lost and gone away
An open door to local strays
I close my eyes and just pretend I know your face

Take him with wherever I go
Country Roads and Aspenglow
All I know is this
There's always someone I'll miss

Camping out in the back-- we're slap jack kings
Down a block through the cornfields, just to watch a church-bell ring
It's Christmas Eve, we need a tree
A dreamer day at the racetrack, just my dad and me

Like a baseball game beneath the lights
Pony league and fireflies
All I know is this

Somethin', someone, some why, someday
Somewhere, sometime, somehow, someday
There is always something

Like a three week trip to the east coast
Niagara Falls and ferry boats
All I know is this--
There's always something to miss
