

The Ballad of Wall: Music by Brittany Jean, lyrics by Jenelle Leanne and Brittany Jean

Signs start in the heart of Minnesota
Pointing all the way to South Dakota
Right on up to Washington state
Both ways

Might be a stretch but not by much
If you're tired of the road and need some lunch
Don't be shy, there's a reason why
Folks are pulling off to go by

Wall, you gotta go to Wall
You gotta see it to believe
They got free ice water and ice cream cones
If you want a souvenir for a friend back home
What do you want, I'm sure they've got it for you
Somewhere in Wall

Buffalo featured everywhere we go
Driving, staring out the window
Never saw one single buffalo
Not one

Crossing the plains in the wild, wild west
If you're weary of the road and need a rest
Don't be shy, there's a reason why
There's only one place for miles and miles and miles...

Wall, you gotta go to Wall
You gotta see it to believe
They got free ice water and ice cream cones
If you want a souvenir for a friend back home
What do you want, I'm sure they've got it for you
Somewhere in Wall

Snow that covers every rolling hill
Headlights shining in the night
Eyes gettin' heavier with every mile
Slow down!

Pull off the road, out of the cold
Warm your fingers by the fire and ease your load
Don't be shy, there's a reason why
The scenic route will take you by

Wall, you gotta go to Wall
You gotta see it to believe
They got free ice water and ice cream cones
If you want a souvenir for a friend back home
What do you want, I'm sure they've got it for you
Somewhere in Wall
