

Then You Don't Know Me: Music and lyrics by Brittany Jean

I could see the wolves in your eyes
They were there when you looked back
Stole away the light from our lives
You were feelin' like you failed us
Darlin', don't think that

If you think I'll run
Think I'm out the door
If you think I'm gone
Thinkin' I want more than you can give...

Then you don't know me
No, you don't know me at all

We were flyin', but then we fell behind
Headlong ran straight into the wall
Paper airplanes that too soon collide
There wasn't any place to hide
You were bracing for the fall

If you think I'll run
Think I'm out the door
If you think I'm gone
Think I want more than you can give...

Then you don't know me
You don't know me at all

Hold onto me
'Cause I'm holding to you for good
Hold onto me
Believe me when I say, love
We are for good
We are good

You don't know me
Then you don't know me at all
You don't know me at all

You'll know me
You'll know
You'll know me
